

Perinatal Psychiatry Clinic

UWMC Roosevelt Psychiatry Outpatient
Clinic

Serving the mental health needs of women during pregnancy, postpartum and preconception

Clinic Hours

Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons

The Perinatal Psychiatry Clinic offers:

- Preconception counseling regarding management of psychiatric disorders during pregnancy.
- Help for patients in making informed decisions regarding treatment of psychiatric disorders during pregnancy / lactation
- Medication management and psychotherapy for psychiatric disorders during pregnancy and lactation
- Focus on well-being of the mother – baby dyad
- Close collaboration with Primary Care, OB/GYN and Pediatrics

For scheduling, please send an EPIC referral to UW Outpatient Psychiatry labeled “Perinatal Psychiatry Clinic” or contact Traci Roberson, (206) 598 – 3644 or troberson@uw.edu.

For more information, contact:

Deborah Cowley, MD
(206) 543 – 6577
dcowley@uw.edu

Amritha Bhat, MD
(206) 314 – 2959
amritha@uw.edu